

I am absolutely against changing the rules on ownership of the airways. Our freedoms that my ancestors fought for --all the way back to the revolutionary war are being taken away. The airways are an important part of that freedom.